

MANDY JEFFCOACH

Mandy Jeffcoach will be presenting “Navigating the New Rules of Professional Conduct,” which will provide attendees with one hour of MCLE credit in the required area of Ethics.

Prior to establishing the Fresno law firm Whitney, Thompson and Jeffcoach, Mandy was an attorney with McCormick Barstow LLP for nearly 14 years. During her career, Mandy has represented plaintiffs and defendants in all phases of litigation and tried cases in both state court and private arbitrations, as well as medical staff privileging and administrative matters. Mandy’s practice focuses on healthcare and professional malpractice, law firm counseling and ethics, construction disputes, business litigation and public entity representation. She has counseled public entities concerning the Brown Act and Public Record Requests. Mandy is also certified as a specialist in Legal Malpractice Law by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization and regularly acts as a fee dispute arbitrator for the local bar association.

Outside of work, Mandy enjoys spending time with her husband and her kids, including going to the beach, time at the lake, riding bikes, and watching movies. Mandy loves baking, cooking, indoor cycling, and TRX—on most mornings, you can find her at the gym.
